- 259 ★ 1861 1p rose lilac, two unused singles each with original gum, clear to wide margins, one without stop after “Granada”, the other with colored spots in oval and above “U” of “Un Peso”, tiny thin in one corner, otherwise fine, cat. $2,500(18) 300.00
- 260 ○ 1861 1p rose lilac, six examples showing manuscript usages from Barranquilla, Buga or Bucaramanga (?), Santander and Santa Marta, of which one features missing stop after “Peso”; all with good margins. Mostly with faint blemishes, not detracting from the good appearance(18) 600.00
- 261 ○ 1861 10c blue, pair showing shifted alignment of transfers, with outer frame line just touched at top, large margins in other respects, intense good color, exhibiting remarkable colorless flaws in upper spandrels, being quite large in the right-hand adhesive, canceled at Bogota. The third largest multiple, of which only four are so far recorded, and this is further enhanced by the prominent flaws, ex-Goeggel(19) 300.00
- 262 ○ 1861 20c red, two examples used at Bogota, in different shades with large margins all around ..(20) 500.00

- 265 ○ 1862 50c red (instead 20c red), error of transfer, type I, clear to large margins, showing two strikes of blue "Medellin/Franca" oval handstamp, leaving the design quite clear and the error completely visible. Types I & II are to be found in the sheet of 20 centavos, and studies stated this error to occur more than once. A very rare and desirable variety, with 1970 Royal certificate, cat. $5,500 (26b) 1,500.00
- 266 ○ 1862 50c red instead of 20c red, error of transfer, type II, good balanced margins all around, featuring a very fresh impression, canceled by ink stroke leaving the error clear. Another example, this being a contrasting type II, of this prestigious, very rare and desirable variety, ex-Hubbard, cat. $5,500..... (26b) 1,500.00
- 267 ☒ 1862 10c blue on bluish paper, type III, large balanced margins on all four sides, canceled "Soata" in manuscript on single weight entire letter from Soata to Bogota, dated 16 February 1864. Two filing folds not affecting the adhesive. About ten covers are recorded exhibiting this single franking; this is to be considered of even greater importance as originating from a small locality(28) 850.00

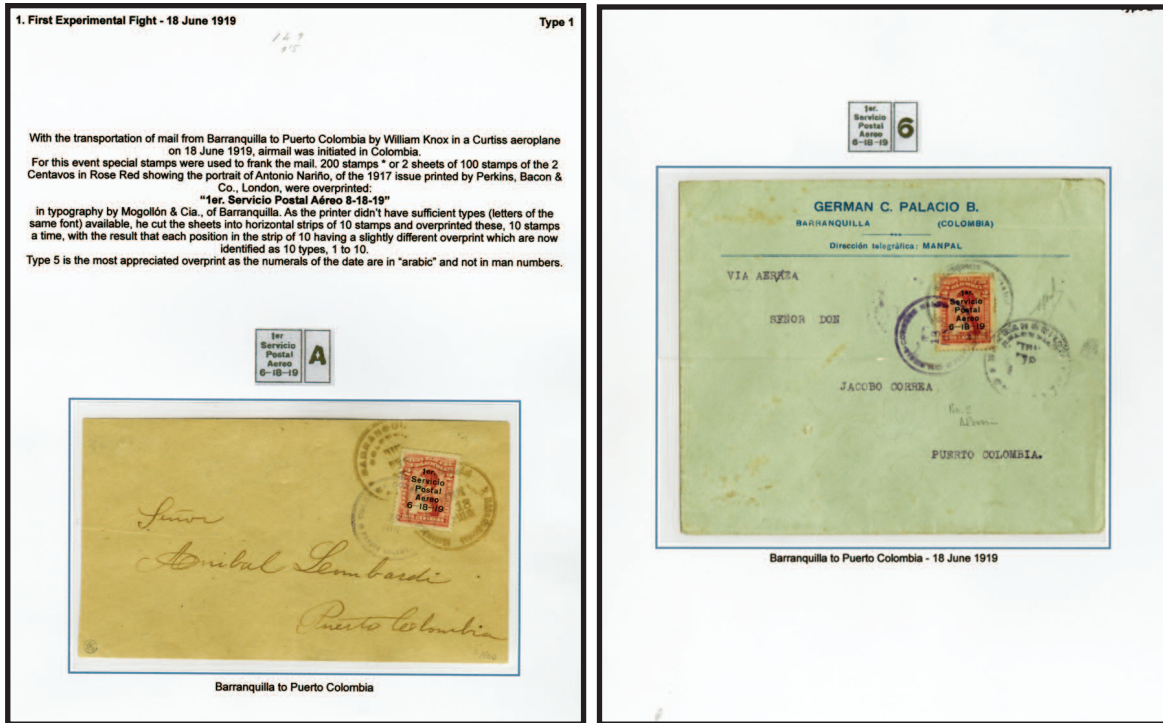

- 268 ☒ 1863 10c blue, type II, the remarkable block of 11 including one rejoined example at right, originating from the top of the sheet, probably positions 1-5, 8-12, showing part of "Velez" cancel in manuscript. Very small acidic ink erosion and two tiny tears, not detracting from its magnificent appearance. The largest used multiple of this 10c denomination(25) 1,500.00
- 269 ☒ 1863 10c blue, type 10, wide to large margins, tied by Bogota oval handstamp on envelope to Neuville sur Saone (France), transferred for maritime carriage to the British P.O. with "Santa Martha" single circle datestamp (1.12.1864) on reverse, with London transit and arrival as accompanying backstamps. Front showing Anglo-French "GB/1F60c" accountancy marking and "8" decimes due marking. Tear on front skillfully patched and some soiling, not detracting from this, one of only four complete covers recorded in this issue addressed to a transatlantic destination, all being directed to France, ex-Wickersham, Londono and Sanchez Vega(31) 500.00
- 270 ☒ 1863 10c blue, type I, ample even margins, faintly tied by indistinct red oval handstamp to cover addressed to Medellin. About 20 covers are recorded with this single franking, with 1961 BPA certificate, signed Enzo Diena, ex-Kaplan(31) 300.00

| 289 | ✉ | 1920 (20 Dec) cover (reduced at left) from Medellin to Cartagena, bearing "Cliff and Mountains" 30c on 10c light brown-red, typewritten surcharge, paying the national postage for the single rate with 3c, both tied by Medellin duplex datestamp in blue, with the vignette being also tied by "Cia. Colombiana de Navegacion/Aerea/Medellin" ribbon handstamp, and Cartagena receiving datestamp in blue at foot. A small number of vignettes were surcharged "0-20" and "0-30" with typewriter, and were to be used on the return flight of the "Medellin" from Medellin to Cartagena via Puerto Berrio. The plane, on its flight up-river, ran out of fuel near San Bartolome on the way to Puerto Berrio, after 3 hours and 30 minutes, and it was destroyed overnight by a storm. The few covers carried were consequently sent by surface mail for onward transmission. Taking into consideration the scarcity of the typewritten surcharge, which was provisionally applied on very few adhesives to be used on the 20 December flight, this item constitutes one of the important rarities of the early Colombian airmails (Gebauer 24), with 1987 Philatelic Foundation certificate, ex-Oschmann, Sanchez Vega and Johnson collections | 2,000.00 |
