1944 unissued Gorale Series

These stamps were supposed to be the first of a 10-17 stamp series depicting the Land and People of the area, and intended to replace the prior Hitler definitives. However, with the fall of the Generalgouvernement to the Red Army, the designs of all stamps were never completed, and those already printed were not issued. This series is popularly referred to as the "Gorale" (highlanders), after the Goral couple on the 24gr design. The stamps depict: I Drilling Rig, II Gorale Couple, III Orthodox Church in Tatarow as well as 12 Gr stamp (Mi. A1) depicting a horse-drawn wagon
